December Dinner Meeting To Feature Fun! Food! Friends! Games! Gifts!

Election of Officers For 2014

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dan Saieed

great job in securing the speaker. Thanks also to a great meeting format that 1st V.P. Patty Parks worked out with the Choo-Choo and our new meeting schedule for next year. Attendees indicated in a survey given by Patty at our dinner that the buffet format was a hit and the Choo-Choo was preferred. Many thanks to Sandy McMillan and Dick Lewallen for their registration accomplishments.

I know we are all looking forward to our December 19th Dinner Social. Patty has planned some great activities for us. We are also going to have our annual election of officers and directors at this meeting. Details as to that are elsewhere in Compass Points. The officers and directors will be installed at the February meeting. In this time of budget cuts and changes to the Sea Services, I hope we can all share our concerns with each other and have a fun time getting to know each other better.

Fire in the Hole,

Dan Saieed

Greetings,

Our last dinner meeting at the Choo-Choo on October 17th was such a success. Tom Halley of Lockheed Martin did an excellent job of briefing us on the F-35C Joint Strike Fighter. Alden Perry did a
